

Venting the Anger

Susperia

Here we go again, haven't seen the fortune and fame Anything you haven't told me yet, like being part of a game
I like the way you're telling me, you're gonna make me rich Nothing happens still, have I lost

Isolate, don't let it flow Idolize my way, then choose where to go I won't stop
even though you do
I know there's something wrong with your heart

Lies from the start till the end
You never were my friend And in the end you will see how close you stand to me

I can't see an ending
Who will help me rise again
On the road to ruin Save me, I believe in nothing

Feed of my blood, sit back and have a laugh No need to pretend, I know you're not my friend
The more I try the less I get from you
No more, I cry, the mess you put me through

I can't see an ending
Who will help me rise again
On the road to ruin
nothing

There and back again, memories of failure
and shame
Can you do anything right, some things will never change I like the way you're pushing me in your direction Nothing matters now, you have lost

Isolate, don't let it flow

Idolize my way, then choose where to go
I wont stop,
I konow there's something

nothing

Can You see me
Who will help me up now
All alone here Save me when I'm venting the anger
