

Homeboy

SUSTO

Homeboy of mine, it's time
He says he's moving to Los Angeles
He can't go out
In town without these people start to panic
You know that he is a friend of mine
And man, I'm gonna miss him

Homegirl of mine, she's fine, yeah
She moved to Buenos Aires
To live and paint
And eat and drink and brush-up on her Spanish
She's got a right minded brain
And now I'm feeling manic

You want a new life
Well, I think I'll have one, too
Tropical fountain, I wanna dive back into you
I do

Homeboy of mine, I'm fine, yeah
But you know it's been a long time
Since I've been down in town
On my own dime
I've got a left minded brain
I think I'm about to lose mine

You want a new life
Well, I think I'll have one, too
Tropical fountain, I wanna spend my time with you
I do

(Yeah!)

You want a new life
Well, I think I'll have one, too
Tropical fountain, I wanna dive back into you
I do
Yeah!
