

After the Fall

Suuns

My mother, my mother, my mother tongue
So far gone, I don't hear it anymore, I just don't feel it like
I should
My fam-, my fam-, family's downstairs
Holding hands and saying all their prayers, they've been saying them for years
It's eas-, so eas-, easy to love
So far gone, I don't see it like I could, I just don't feel like
I should

In you, in you, and it's all in my heart
In you, in you, and it's all in my heart

So far, so far, so far away
I used to think I could learn it in a day, no it's never going to stay
My fam-, my fam-, all that remains
Holding hands and wondering where I am, I don't think I can explain, no
After the fall we lose control
Easy it comes, and easy to let go, I don't think we'll ever know

In you, in you, and it's all in my heart
In you, in you, and it's all in my heart
In you, in you, and it's all in my heart
In you, in you, and it's all in my heart

In you, in you, and it's all in my heart
In you, in you, and it's all in my heart
In you, in you, and it's all in my heart
In you, in you, and it's all in my heart
