It doesn't mean you don't know what love is
Deep within your heart, feel it in your blood
Do you really know how the other half live?
Every second breath, hold it in your lungs

Do you know what you're doing?
Do you see, all seeing?

And what you see is not the same as what I'm seeing
Even in the dark, even in your dreams
No we'll never change, never ever changing
You're the only one, you're the only one

Do you know, all knowing?
Do you see, all seeing?

Do you know, all knowing?
