

Overture

Suuns

Blink twice let me know you're there, blink twice
Your eyes are full of heaven
Cross with me to the other side, blink twice
Your ghost is white as heaven

Do you hear my voice
Do you hear dreams
Do you're the stars are falling out of time

Forgotten people's lives
Possessions load I wipe this drive
Blurred lines and waves of heat
With flames dispelled on tarmac sheets
We bummed a ride on dead-end streets
And lost our way on the road to Mecca
