

The Breaks

Suuns

Oh heart, whisper not, I just can't relate
Road blocked, lost the plot, I guess them's the breaks
Oh, well, that's just what I'm told to say

Sun down, another town, I forget the name
Shadows on the road, shine a light my way
Oh, no, that's just what I'm told to say

But I see now, all that's in between now
When I dream, I dream about another way

Road ahead, brain dead, hours is what it takes
Nothing left to be said, when you got nothing to say
Oh, well, now what's going to take your place

Facing south the sun it forms a crown
All I see these stars spinning round and round

But I see now, all that's in between now
When I dream now, I got to find another way
But I feel now, wasn't but a dream now
When I dream now, I got to find another way
