Can I Be Your Girl

Suzi Quatro

Well I'm telling you now
Things I promised I'd never say
And I'm taking my chances
I won't fall flat on my face

Yes, there's no denying that I need you so
It's too late now to ever let you go
Can I be your girl?
I don't wanna waste my time
Can I share your world?
I don't wanna wait in line
Can I be your girl?

Well, I said you'd be free
Yes, I told you, no strings attached
But how could I have known
That we'd end up the perfect match

And I find myself so in love with you
It's too late now to say goodbye to you
Can I be your girl?
I don't wanna waste my time
Can I share your world?
I don't wanna wait in line
Can I be your girl?

Yes, there's no denying that I need you so
It's too late now to ever let you go
Can I be your girl?
I don't wanna waste my time
Can I share your world?
I don't wanna wait in line
Can I be your girl?

Can I be your girl?
Can I be your girl?
Can I be your girl?
Can I be your girl?
