

Don't Do Me Wrong

Suzi Quatro

I'm speaking my mind
My arrows in flight
It may be unkind but
You're gonna hear me tonight
It's time for a showdown
It's time to come clean
I'm giving you the part of me
That you've never seen

I don't want to need nobody
I don't need to want nobody
All I want is to be somebody

Don't do me wrong... why don't you do me wrong...
Don't do me wrong... why don't you do me wrong...

I gave you the key
To my inside track
You gave me red roses but
You always painted them black
I can't keep on walking on broken glass
I can't keep on acting like
You're not a pain in the ass (cause you are, baby, you heard me

I don't want to need nobody
I don't need to want nobody
All I want is to be somebody

Don't do me wrong... why don't you do me wrong...
Don't do me wrong... why don't you do me wrong...

I don't want to need nobody
I don't need to want nobody
All I want is to be somebody

Don't do me wrong... don't you do me wrong...
Don't do me wrong... don't you do me wrong...
