Falling

Svala

Why did you have to say
It's magic when I smile?
Why did you have to tell me
Mmm you like my style?
Why did you have to say
Stars are in my eyes?
Why did you have to be
Have to be so doggone nice?
I won't forgive the way you smile
'Cause I just can't stop from falling
And I don't wanna fall tonight
No, I just can't stop from falling
So boy we better do it right
'Cause I don't wanna fall tonight

Why did you have to say
You never ever felt that much
Too irresistible
Too beautiful
I've got to touch
Why did you have to say
Heaven's in my eyes
Why did you have to be
Have to be so doggone nice

I won't forgive the way you smile
'Cause I just can't stop from falling
And I don't wanna fall tonight
No, I just can't stop from falling
So boy we better do it right
'Cause I don't wanna fall tonight

I've been hurt by love before
And I promised myself
To cry no more
But here you are and
Here I go again
I just can't stop from falling
And I don't wanna fall tonight
I just can't stop from falling
So boy we better do it right
'Cause I don't wanna fall tonight
