

Karma

Svala

I've tried not to notice
You've got out of focus, I
Seen you for a moment
Before I know it
Yeah you're gone, gone gone
Yeah you're gone, gone gone

I'm stuck with the feelin'
Crawlin' on the ceiling, I
Can't stop you from leavin'
Before I know it
Yeah you're gone, gone gone
Yeah you're gone, gone gone

Is there somethin' that I'm missin'?
You've been acting different
Yeah there's something in your eyes
Yeah you do this all the time
Yes I'm making up your mind

I know you don't like how it taste
Take everything we said and throw it right back in your face
Yeah that's karma, karma, karma, karma
Yeah that's karma, karma, karma for ya, oh yeah

Feels good not to need you
The way that I used to, I Thought I could change you that I'd breakthrough
I was wrong, wrong, wrong
But I was wrong, wrong, wrong

I know you don't like how it taste
Take everything we said and throw it right back in your face
Yeah that's karma, karma, karma, karma
Yeah that's karma, karma, karma for ya, oh yeah

Is there somethin' that I'm missin'?
You've been acting different
Yeah there's something in your eyes
Yeah you do this all the time
Yes I'm making up your mind

I know you don't like how it taste
Take everything we said and throw it right back in your face
Yeah that's karma, karma, karma, karma, yeah
Yeah that's karma, karma, karma for ya, oh yeah

I know you don't like how it taste
Take everything we said and throw it right back in your face
Yeah that's karma, karma, karma, karma, yeah
Yeah that's karma, karma, karma for ya, oh yeah
