

Enemy

Sweater Beats

He was driving in your cropped up car
Like a movie star
You were laughing like the world is yours
Like your Illuminati
I look bang hot, 'cause you don't know about me
You got it all covered up perfectly
With no family, but we like your Maserati

How does it feel when you know you got two?
We both got love 'cause we only got you
How does it feel when you know you're untrue
You are the enemy

I've got a lover who's got a lover
And his lover doesn't know about me
You tryna keep us down undercover
So we won't see, one is never enough
Why you gotta be so greedy?
I've got a lover who's got a lover
You are the enemy

Why you gotta, why you gotta
Why you gotta, why you gotta
You are the enemy
Why you gotta, why you gotta
Why you gotta, why you gotta
You are the enemy

You're calling, but you bbring me down
High heels, I'mma ten feet tall
You are dancing like a basket ball
Caught you in the act, say cheese
Now you know when I don't like your things
We had a good thing, now we hide those things
I'd retire from all of that world
Give me now I got my streak

How does it feel when you know you got two?
We both got love 'cause we only got you
How does it feel when you know you're untrue

I've got a lover who's got a lover
And his lover doesn't know about me
You tryna keep us down undercover
So we won't see, one is never enough
Why you gotta be so greedy?
I've got a lover who's got a lover
You are the enemy

Why you gotta, why you gotta
Why you gotta, why you gotta
You are the enemy
Why you gotta, why you gotta
Why you gotta, why you gotta
You are the enemy
