

Deep

Sweet Trip

Tell her it's time to look at you
Tell her that all you feel is true
Tell her she's so warm that she'll meltdown
Tell her to leave her life behind
Tell her to leave her life in style
Don't be afraid to drown as you meltdown
So
Dream of sunshine
Let your long hair grow
There's something too deep
Instead of you

Tell her it's time to look at you
Tell her that all you feel is true
Tell her she's so warm that she'll meltdown
Tell her to leave her life behind
Tell her to leave her life in style
Don't be afraid to drown as you meltdown
So
Dream of sunshine
And your long hair now
There's something too deep
Instead of you
There's something too deep
Instead of you
There's something too deep
Instead of you
There's something too deep
Instead of you
