

Defender

Sweet

You've been through a rough patch
Got no end in sight
Big dents in your confidence
Lost in a tunnel with no light
Bad things come in 3's
But now you're up to nine
Ya might've missed me standing here
All this time

Should you ever wonder
If there's someone in your corner
Every time the storm hits
When you buckle under
From the weight that's on your shoulder
Need someone to hold you tight
I've got your back
Whenever your back's against the wall

I'll be your defender
I'll be your defender
I'll be your defender
I'll be your defender

You were walkin' a fine line
And fate just took a twist
Code red, on the ledge
So close to losin' it
I've seen those demons
They've come to haunt me too
No matter what they're whisperin'
I can tell you

Should you ever wonder
If there's someone in your corner
Every time the storm hits
When you buckle under
From the weight that's on your shoulder
Need someone to hold you tight
I've got your back
Whenever your back's against the wall

I'll be your defender
I'll be your defender
I'll be your defender
I'll be your defender

I got your back
Whenever your back's against the wall

I'll be your defender
I'll be your defender
I'll be your defender
I'll be your defender

I'll be your defender (I got your back)
I'll be your defender (Won't let you fall)
I'll be your defender (I got your back)

I'll be your defender (Won't let you fall)
