

Midget Submarines

Swell Maps

Solid in those waters
You were shattered and you lost your name
Cutting lines you shot the channel
Pushing out the galleons

In a midget submarine
Midget submarine
So much like escape

Sleeping in a moving train
With ammunition and the other guns
Diving out of games
With all those stens and always so amazed

In a midget submarine
Midget submarine
It's all escape

Sitting there in fashion
Just so pretty, so real, amazed
Cases of the cargo
All in canvas with galleons and tanks

In a midget submarine
Midget submarine
It's all escape

In a midget submarine
Midget submarine
It's all escape
