

Bruised

Swim Deep

I was in a cave when I first saw the light
A crack where my mind escapes
I was on a mountain I was screaming love
Will someone soothe the pain

I got bruised for my love
I got bruised for my love

I was on a boat when I first found out
I could float forever in a day
I was in a maze when I lost my mind
I was searching for a happy escape

I got bruised for my love
I got bruised for my love

Someone told me if you ain't got a name
You're just a grain in the desert in vain
Fantasy is my necessity when my reality is a pain
Oh I!
Oh I!
Oh I've, summer in, heartbreak
Summer in, heartbreak

It's one thing to admit, when you're feeling down
But to talk about it, is something else
Cause heaven knows, that heroes talk, about heroes thoughts

My love! My love! My love! My love!
My love! My love! My love! My love!

I got bruised for my love
I got bruised for my love
