

Worlds Unluckiest Guy

Swim Deep

What could you be?
With all the fire inside your eyes
It scares you, I know that
What would I be
Without you singing in my room
You're so sure you don't try

You're thunder in the night time
Blue sky in the wastelands
Push away the darkest

You're the only want I've wanted to be
You say the sun don't shine on me
Screaming at the sky, pulling at the why's
Singing you're the world's unluckiest guy
Don't keep me in the dark it's better of said
There's so many signs I should've just read
Screaming at the sky, pulling at the why's
Saying you're the world's unluckiest guy

I look at you when I need style
You are the universal
For pushing a pull door

You're thunder in the night time
Blue sky in the wastelands
Push away the darkest

You're the only want I've wanted to be
You say the sun don't shine on me
Screaming at the sky, pulling at the why's
Singing you're the world's unluckiest guy
Don't keep me in the dark it's better of said
There's so many signs I should've just read
Screaming at the sky, pulling at the why's
Saying you're the world's unluckiest guy

Oh, stop me when the world stops turning
Stop me when your heart stops burning
Screaming you're the world's unluckiest
I don't wanna hear it

You're the only want I've wanted to be
You say the sun don't shine on me
Screaming at the sky, pulling at the why's
Singing you're the world's unluckiest guy
Don't keep me in the dark it's better of said
There's so many signs I should've just read
Screaming at the sky, pulling at the why's
Saying you're the world's unluckiest guy

Keep me in the darkest, keep me in the darkest
Keep me in the darkest, keep me in the darkest
Keep me in the darkest, keep me in the darkest
Keep me in the darkest, keep me in the darkest
