

Holiday

Swimming with Dolphins

I wasn't looking for things to do
I wasn't looking for something new
But that's when I found you
That's when I found you
You took my hand and we took it slow
We fell together like flakes of snow
On a blanket down below
On a blanket down below
And you said, "Does anything feel strange?"
'Cause you're like a perfect dream and I'm afraid to awake
I'll lose it all somehow 'cause ever since you came
I've been living in a holiday, a holiday
So I dream a little more, dream a little more
'Cause I can't shake this feeling
So tell me why did your feet get cold
I know intentions are as good as gold
Even good things just get old
Even good things just get old
I gotta know when to act real tough
You never thought that I was good enough
So I just kept giving up
Yeah, we're always giving up
Does anything feel strange?
'Cause you're like a perfect dream and I'm afraid to awake
I'll lose it all somehow 'cause ever since you came
I've been living in a holiday, a holiday, yeah, yeah, yeah
So I'm standing at your door
Tears falling like the rain
And I'm calling out your name
'Cause I know you hear me
Do you remember me?
I'm the one you thought you could never leave
Remember me?
Yes, I'm the one you thought you could never leave
Does anything feel strange?
'Cause you're like a perfect dream that I can't seem to escape
I wanna lost it all somehow 'cause every since you came
I've been living in a holiday, a holiday, yeah, yeah, yeah
Now every flame just goes cold
And all the summers fade
No one that I hold can make me feel quite the same
'Cause ever since you came
I've been living in a holiday, a holiday
So I dream a little more, dream a little more
'Cause I can't shake this feeling
