It's true, I can never earn Your grace
Still You give it freely every day
Even when my mind is overcome
Say I won't be left here on my own

Your love is not distracted by my shame
You're near to me, You understand my pain
And when my burdens bring me to my knees
You are always there to carry me

I've failed under pressure
Despite all my efforts
But Your love keeps no record

You won't leave, You'll never walk away
Love won't fail, it never loses faith
Even when I feel like I'm losing control
You will hold me close
You won't leave, You'll never walk away
Come stand through whatever I might face
Even when I feel like I'm losing control
You will hold me close

Even when my confidence is gone
Lost within the mess of what went wrong
Somehow You see treasure in me still You've loved me all along, You always will

I've failed under pressure
Despite all my efforts
But Your love keeps no record

You won't leave, You'll never walk away
Love won't fail, it never loses faith
Even when I feel like I'm losing control
You will hold me close
You won't leave, You'll never walk away
Come stand through whatever I might face
Even when I feel like I'm losing control
You will hold me close

No matter how far my heart runs away
I'll never escape Your love
No matter what comes, You always remain
No matter how far my heart runs away
I'll never escape Your love (My heart runs away)
No matter what comes, You always remain
You will hold me

You won't leave, You'll never walk away (You'll never leave me)
Love won't fail, it never loses faith (Never loses faith)
Even when I feel like I'm losing control
You will hold me close
You won't leave, You'll never walk away (You'll never leave me)
Come stand through whatever I might face (I lose faith)
Even when I feel like I'm losing control (Whoo)
You will hold me close

You won't leave, You'll always hold me
Love won't fail, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Even when I feel like I'm losing control
You will hold me close
