3 AM and my mind's a blur
Painting memories on my walls
Three long hours that I've tossed and turned
Thinking, "Where do I belong?"

I'm staring at all of my faces
Nothing that I want to see
'Cause all of these pictures look nothing like me

You can take my fingerprints
I'd still be wondering
Who it is You made me to be?
What is my real ID?
Heaven knows that there's a plan
Can You help me to understand
Who it is You made me to be?
What is my real ID?

What is my real (real, real)
What is my real ID? (real, real)
What is my real (real, real)
What is my real ID?

Desperate days running from the truth
Heaven help this heart find You (find You)
Let me see who I really am
And what You brought me here to do

I'm staring at all of my faces
Nothing that I want to see
'Cause all of these pictures look nothing like me

You can take my fingerprints
I'd still be wondering
Who it is You made me to be?
What is my real ID?
Heaven knows that there's a plan
Can You help me to understand
Who it is You made me to be?
What is my real ID?

What is my real (real, real)
What is my real ID? (real, real)
What is my real (real, real)
What is my real ID?

Looking at Your fingerprints
I begin to understand
Who it is You made me to be
You are my real ID
Heaven is my destiny
I think I can finally see
Who it is You made me to be, oh, oh
Looking at Your fingerprints
I begin to understand
Who it is You made me to be (who it is You made me to be)
You are my real ID

Heaven is my destiny (yes)
I think I can finally see
Who it is You made me to be
You are my real ID

What is my real (real, real, oh)
What is my real ID? (real, real)
What is my real (real, real)
What is my real ID?

I'm staring at all of my faces
You're all that I want to see
