Every heart needs love
With no strings attached
Unconditional
Something built to last
The human soul is fragile
A broken hourglass
But You got all the time in the world
You got all the time in the world for me

I've found where I belong
Here in Your loving arms
I'm running home
You say that I'm invited
You tie Your heart to mine
You choose me every time
I'm not alone
You say that I'm invited

You say that I'm invited

You never leave me out
You're reaching out instead (Reaching out instead)
When I call on You (Yeah)
I'm never left on read
I never have to wonder (No, no)
Where our friendship stands
'Cause You got all the time in the world
Yeah, You got all the time in the world for me

I've found where I belong (I've found where I belong)
