Caught up in my feelings
Spent so much time tryna play it safe
But the safety's just an illusion
When I'm called to be fearless

So here I come, I want to follow
Where You're leading me
Time to let go, it's sink or swim now
So I, so I

Jump
No matter what the risk
I'm finally diving in
Nothing can hold me back
When You hold my hand
So I jump
No fear of what's ahead
I'm trusting You instead
Close my eyes, take a breath
And step up to the edge
And jump

Now I'm seeing clearly
The fear I held was caging me in
But You set me free with the promise
That I'm never abandoned

So here I come, ready to follow
Where You're leading me
Time to let go, it's sink or swim now
So I, so I

Jump
No matter what the risk
I'm finally diving in
Nothing can hold me back
When You hold my hand
So I jump
No fear of what's ahead
I'm trusting You instead
Close my eyes, take a breath
And step up to the edge
And jump

So here I come, I want to follow
Where You're leading me
Time to let go, it's sink or swim now
So I, so I

Jump
No matter what the risk
I'm finally diving in
Nothing can hold me back
When You hold my hand
So I jump
No fear of what's ahead
I'm trusting You instead

Close my eyes, take a breath
And jump
