

Letting Go

Switch

Did I ever have control
Or just anxiety?
Did I ever really know
What the point was supposed to be?
Was I close enough
And did I mess it up
Trying to do this on my own

Feels like maybe something's missing
I'm asking You to show me there's a bigger picture

Even with these questions
I open up my hands
Come and wreck my plans
While I'm waiting I will worship
I trust You're in control
Come and make me whole
I'm letting go

Maybe I don't have to see
What the future holds
To trust Your promises to me
In my weakness You are strong
And in the moments when
I feel powerless
You are closest to me then

Even with these questions
I open up my hands
Come and wreck my plans
While I'm waiting I will worship
I trust You're in control
Come and make me whole
I'm letting go

Letting go
Letting go
I'm letting go

Maybe You're not keeping secrets
And all I need to do
Is ask for Your perspective
You're showing me the bigger picture
Sorry for the times I've missed it

Even with these questions
I open up my hands
Come and wreck my plans
While I'm waiting I will worship
I trust You're in control
Come and make me whole

Letting go
Letting go

I'm letting go

Letting go

I'm letting go
