Lifeline

When I'm drowning
Oceans raging all around me
Through the thunder and the waves you're constant
You're my lifeline in the storm

See the waters
Rushing through this broken vessel
You're the calm within the current
Hope rising through the storm

You'll never leave me
It doesn't matter what I'm facing, no...
And when I'm failing
You're holding on to me
And I'm holding on to you

I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you

Endless mercy
You had every right to leave me
All my sin had left me stranded
But your love has brought me home

You'll never leave me
It doesn't matter what I'm facing, no...
And when I'm failing
You're holding on to me
And I'm holding on to you

I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you

I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you

You'll never leave me
It doesn't matter what I'm facing, no...
And when I'm failing
You're holding on to me
And I'm holding on to you

I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you

I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
```
