

Obsession

Switch

Numbers and status
Don't have a place here
Viral obsessions fade
But You remain the same
Words and opinions
Are nothing but white noise
I only hear Your voice

Light in the darkness
You are my heart's desire
Let my obsession be
What You have done for me
In the end, what they think doesn't matter
I refuse to be bound to their standards
By Your love I am free

When the world is shouting
You are peace around me
You have seen me and You call me as Your own
Nothing else can silence
What You speak with purpose
There is nothing that defines me but Your love

Without condition
I am accepted
Jesus Your love for me
Is all that I'll ever need
I refuse to obsess over status
I refuse to obsess over fame
You are enough for me

When the world is shouting
You are peace around me
You have seen me and You call me as Your own
Nothing else can silence
What You speak with purpose
There is nothing that defines me but Your love

In the end, what they think doesn't matter
I refuse to be bound to their standards
You are enough for me
In the end, what they think doesn't matter
I refuse to be bound to their standards
By your love I am free, yeah...

When the world is shouting
You are peace around me
You have seen me and You call me as Your own
Nothing else can silence
What You speak with purpose
There is nothing that defines me but Your love...
