perfection

Switch

I keep finding myself fighting to avoid the mirror, the mirror
I could use some help 'cause I don't like what I see here, see here

Do I measure up?
Am I good enough?
What if I fail?
What if I can't do it well? (Ah-ah)
Will they walk away?
Will You walk away?
Do You think I'm worth it still?

But when all I see are the flaws, You see perfection, perfection
Looking through this mess of a heart, You see perfection, perfection
Show me what's behind Your eyes
Don't think I can trust in mine
When all I see are the flaws, You see perfection, perfection

I learn slowly, but You're teaching me to love myself, myself
Starting to believe You want me like nobody else, mm

Never measure up
But You are my enough
And sometimes I fail
And sometimes I can't do it well (Ah-ah)
If they walk away
You don't walk away
You tell me I'm worth it still

'Cause when all I see are the flaws, You see perfection, perfection
Looking through this mess of a heart, You see perfection, perfection
Show me what's behind Your eyes
Don't think I can trust in mine
When all I see are the flaws, You see perfection, perfection

Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
You see perfection
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
You see perfection

When all I see are the flaws, You see perfection, perfection
Looking through this mess of a heart, You see perfection, perfection
Show me what's behind Your eyes
I don't think I can trust in mine
When all I see are the flaws, You see perfection, perfection

Oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh
You see perfection
Oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh
Perfection
