

I'm Falling

Switched

I taste the days before i leave, I'm waiting still in grief.

A dissappointed night.

I gaze, i gaze what i have done. The end of things to come.

Not scared what i have done.

I wait, I'm waiting here and bleed, I'm waiting still in grief, abusing all the time.

I sink, I'm sinking down tonight, still wait
that bitch called life, the end
begins tonight.

'Cause there's no more feeling, here I am, I am the last one, the last one in this night.

I gaze, I gaze my open veins. the morphine makes insane, abuse me all the time.

It makes, it makes me feel alive, the drug will keep me
smile.

I say the world goodbye, I'm leaving with a smile.

You will see, I'm crawling, use the switch,
I'm falling through the other side, tragedy insane.

One last pill, I'm crawling, use the switch,
I'm falling, I'm falling down.
