

Evergreen

Switchfoot

Me and the trees, losing our leaves
Falling like blood on the ground
I want to be evergreen

Everything dies, I know last night
Part of me wasn't around
I want to be evergreen
Yeah, evergreen...

Waiting, and listening
Hoping and missing all of our time left alone
I'm the one cutting the rope
Frostbite in winter,
Cuts like a splinter
You come and follow me down
I'm the one cutting the rope
Yeah...

- Chorus -

Holiday end, I'm here once again,
And I'm left alone on the bus with my
Head on the ground,
In hopes that I'm found by you this time around

The sun will rise soon and tackle the moon
Chasing it still in the sky
All that I've got is tonight
Excuses and reasons, and now 'tis the season
For all that I never got right
All that I've got is tonight

The night is a crow, saying come hold me
All that I know is I've been so lonely for thee

All that I knew, and all that I know, found itself under your rain
I want to be evergreen
I want to be evergreen!

- Chorus -

Holiday end, I'm here once again,
And I'm left alone on the bus with my
Head on the ground,
In hopes that I'm found by you this time around
I want to be evergreen, I want to live all year round (4x)
