

When Was The Last Time

Switchfoot

Give me a little time to sink
My footsteps on the brink
My girl says that she's freaking out
And I'm not sure what I can think and I think and

My heart keeps skipping the beats
And my beach feels out of reach
And I wish I could say that the world's gone crazy
But it feels like it's just me

And it's been so long
It's been so long

When was the last time that you found you're lasting?
When was the last time you tried something for the first time?
I said when was the last time that you found you're lasting?
When was the last time you tried something for the first time?

And let go
And let go
And let go
And let go

Life is already difficult, but I'd rather be happy than typical
The crowded heart leaves abominable, but I'm the one moving on

And it's been so long
It's been so long

When was the last time that you found you're lasting?
When was the last time you tried something for the first time?
I said when was the last time that you found you're lasting?
When was the last time you tried something for the first time?

And let go

When was the last time you did something that made you feel like a kid
Life ain't just like a [?] we're moving just the little ones
It's been so long
When was the last time we held hands and we looked at the stars as they fell
Laughing hard at ourselves, we're moving just the little ones
It's been so long
It's been so long

When was the last time that you found you're lasting?
When was the last time you tried something for the first time?
I said when was the last time that you found you're lasting?
When was the last time you tried something for the first time?
