

Title Fighter, I've got blood running down my cheek
Arms on fire, I'm feeling far too weak
To win, the towels in, I do what I've gotta do
So I stand and I take it on the chin, though I know that I'm gonna lose

'Cause sometimes you gotta hang on tight
Yeah for your life
And everything that you know
But other times, to find the light
You've gotta give up the fight
You've gotta let it all
You've gotta let it all go
Oh yeah, let it all
You've gotta let it all go
Oh yeah, let it all

Teenage heartthrob, oh how everyone knew your face
Limos, big mobs, and now it feels so strange that
You found you in a world that you can't recognize
You've seen so much but you don't feel wise

Sometimes you gotta hang on tight
Yeah for your life
And everything that you know
But other times, to get it right
You've gotta give up the fight
You've gotta let it all
You've gotta let it all go
Oh yeah, let it all
You've gotta let it all

Sometimes you gotta hang on tight
Yeah for your life
And everything that you know
But other times, to get it right
You've gotta give up the fight
You've gotta let it all
Go

Let it all
You've gotta let it all
You've gotta let it
You've gotta let it all go
Oh yeah, let it all
You've gotta let it all go
Oh yeah, let it all go
