

Miley is a punk rock queen
She's Sisyphus even in a corporate scene
And they're all calling her a dumb slut, she keeps burning blunts, fuck
Miley is a punk rock queen

My mother thinks that you're disturbed
My favorite magazine just published all your questionable words
They all criticize your latest, but I think you're the greatest
Cause Miley you're a punk rock queen
Yeah Miley you're a punk rock queen

You bring the bleach, I'll bring chlorine,
We can dye our hair a color that nobody ever seen,
You're a national threat and you're messing with my head
Cause Miley you're a punk rock queen
Yeah Miley you're a punk rock queen

I used to watch you on TV
Now I see you on the web in artistic pornography (Oh shit!)
You push the envelope on all sides, I can't get enough alright
Miley you're a punk rock queen

Miley what's your next move gonna be?
Miley something unexpected that nobody will foresee
Know that even if it's funk rock or if it's getting drunk rock
Miley you're a punk rock queen
Yeah Miley you're a punk rock queen

You bring the bleach, I'll bring chlorine,
We can dye our hair a color that nobody ever seen,
You're a national threat and you're messing with my head
Cause Miley you're a punk rock queen
Yeah Miley you're so punk rock

Dressed in all black you revel in your ego
No looking back you rebel and we need you
Dressed in all black you revel in your ego
No looking back you rebel and we need you
And we need you
No we need you
We need you

You bring the bleach, I'll bring chlorine,
We can dye our hair a color that nobody ever seen,
You're a national threat and you're messing with my head
Cause Miley you're a punk rock queen
Yeah Miley you're a punk rock queen
Yeah Miley you're a punk rock
Miley you're a punk rock
Miley you're a punk rock queen
