

Miss Yer Kiss

SWMRS

You're goth and glam
I hope it's not a one night stand
But I'm so cold and you keep me warm, yeah
I do then
Cigarettes and gin in hand
It's just you're so cool and I wanna steal this moment with you

Well I miss your kicks
I miss your lips
I miss your kiss, already
I miss your pain
I miss your brain
I miss your kiss, already
Alright

Well I'll hold you dear
I hope that you don't think I'm weird
Pretend it never happened, and just go back to Manhattan
Cause we made a pact
And I'll try my best not to get attached
But you're so cool and I'm such a fool for you

Well I missed your text
I miss your sex
I miss your kiss, already
I miss your pain
I miss your brain
I miss your kiss, already
Alright

Well I miss your lips
I miss your tits
I miss your kiss, already
I miss your pain
I miss your brain
I miss your kiss, already

So just miss your plane
Stay at my place
Cause I miss your kiss, already
And I miss your pain
I miss your brain
I miss your kiss, already
Alright
