Part Time Bum

SWMRS

School is out your grades are in
Your personality stretched so thin
But you're done, you can fill it all up
Summer summer, more skies, less numbers
Cruise with us, don't be a bummer
You're in, stop worrying

Your mexicalifornian style
Doing the dishes meanwhile
You're a part time bum

Ain't got a worry in the world
Oh yeah dance you boys and girls
Oh no (oh no)
I'm so carefree (so carefree yeah)
Ain't got a trouble in the world
Oh yeah dance you boys and girls
Oh no (oh no)
I'm so carefree (so carefree yeah)

Sun is up, you're on the town
Surfboard calling, come on down
You're in, you're ready to go
Music playing, bodies swaying
Could you tell your mind was straying away
But you're alright

Feel the sand in between your toes
And the salty air in your nose
You're a part time bum

Ain't got a worry in the world
Oh yeah dance you boys and girls
Oh no (oh no)
I'm so carefree (so carefree yeah)
Ain't got a trouble in the world
Oh yeah dance you boys and girls
Oh no (oh no)
I'm so carefree (so carefree)

Ain't got a worry in the world
Oh yeah dance you boys and girls
Oh no (oh no)
I'm so carefree (so carefree yeah)
Ain't got a trouble in the world
Oh yeah dance you boys and girls
Oh no (oh no)
I'm so carefree (so carefree yeah)

Ride the strip and pick up babes
Cruise all night and surf all day
Well your sunburn is building up
Scour the beach you're blowing bubbles
Suns out guns out you're nothing but trouble
Come on, don't look so down

Variables by your side

Buffing out your iron hide
You're a part time bum
