SWMRS

I walked from here to Tenth
And it happened through the fence
The list ain't cheap and he's paying for the whole Bay Area

How am I supposed to think
When he's got a backpack full of dank
My head's spinnin' out and my rep's going out through the door

No, I can't imagine
Being so liability clad
The girl is in the picture
But the caption's lookin' sad

A boatload of detention
For a 20-sack of attention
The head's messin' up and the face couldn't look more guilty

Always lookin' for something to eat
To scrap some bank he'll kiss the feet
And he'll dress to the beat of whatever's trending now

No, I can't imagine
Being so liability clad
The girl is in the picture
But the caption's lookin' sad

Escape to the fallen right
'Cause it's dismissed and there's no fight
Hell to the liar days
'Cause they're done for but the list ain't gone

No, I can't imagine
Being so liability clad
The girl is in the picture
But the caption's lookin' sad

The list ain't gone
The list ain't gone
The list ain't gone
