Ask him who's wrong.
Can't you get along?
Break out your chess set,
We need more pawns!
Keep dragging on.
Johnny, get your gun.
We need you out there,
Even though we've won.

I'm not an expert,
And I got no details,
But it feels so retail
Like toy soldiers in a store.
Do they need our protection?
Do we need there direction
To keep our ways?

I'm not anti-American,
I'm not anti-war.
I'm anti-hoarding,
I'm anti-more!
Take what you need,
But give it back.
If God is out there,
He'd have my back...

I'm not an expert,
And I got no details,
But it feels so retail
Like toy soldiers in a store.
Do they need our protection?
Do we need there direction
To keep our ways?
