CAUGHT, cause we never rest, drop this on ya
We're the heaviest, you would never wanna
Talk shit cause we come back to haunt ya

I'm addicted to speed but not the drug
I lead by example my breed can hunt
Seen enough mayhem, step into the A.M
Weapons of contention for any given occasion
I attack with Battleaxe Warriors from the armory
Some of us kill you mentally; some of us hurt you bodily (Heavy)
A miracle of modern science
With the naturally passionate carnivorous diet (Heavy)
We're an anomaly, not a novelty
Enter at your own risk, private property
Do not trespass beware of dogs
Bear traps, alarms, and a right to bare arms

Where laws ain't applied my jaws homicide
The water ain't safe whoever said it was lied
