

Everybody's Going Through

Swoope

I wish somebody would've told me I would feel like this
I wish I would've known it would get real like this
This is real, it's really real when it's tears like this (Yeah)
And you wish that it was different, but it's still like this
Feel, really feel that, it's so emotional, it's no emotion, yeah
We'll feel alone 'cause this is what everybody going through

Everybody going through

Yeah, respectively, we all going through collectively Definitely all got made with the same recipe
It's equity, and shared experience is destiny
And rest in peace, so if you're hearin' this you probably dealt with death and grief
For some of us it's new and some of us got expertise But everybody feel it, can we take a second, please? (Can we ta ke a second please? Yeah)
God, some of these weapons that's formin' seem to be prospering
I wanna accept that this you're lot for me, but honestly it's a lot for me Uneducated, don't know how to grieve, and everybody thinks it's only one way to do it properly And that's to cry for weeks, but I'm fatigued and I ain't cried in weeks
I'm kinda tired, please give me time to breathe (Time to breath e)

I wish somebody would've told me I would feel like this
I wish I would've known it would get real like this
This is real, it's really real when it's tears like this (Yeah)
And you wish that it was different, but it's still like this
Feel, really feel that, it's so emotional, it's no emotion, yeah
We'll feel alone 'cause this is what everybody going through
