Brace yourself, I take you down a trip down memory lane
This is not a rap about a rapper who done never changed
This that "Whoomp! There it is"
I mean, "Swoope! There it is"
You could check my whole catalog with true, there it is
And the crew never switched, nah
Blood thicker than Aquafina (Water)
Blood is livin' water, drink up
Break bread, B.O
Drink wine, pinot noir
Fam' now, we bros
Blood like Tarantino
Your chips Pringles, gone at the bottom of cans
Our chips casinos, Father got houses and land
Speak loyal, that's lingo, fear God, street clothes
One way, your street closed, crosswinds, bingos

Think I'ma do this forever
Think I'ma, wait
Think I'ma do this forever
Think I'ma, yeah, yeah
Think I'ma do this forever (Whoo!)
Think I'ma, yeah
Think I'ma do this forever (Forever)
Think I'ma, yeah
Think I'ma do this forever
You know the truth's forever
You know the movies forever (Woah)
You know the crew is forever
You know the crew is forever {Ayy, Swoope}
Think I'ma, yeah {I'ma take my time with this}
Think I'ma do this forever
Think I'ma, yeah {Yeah, yeah, yeah}
Think I'ma do this forever

I remember when they tried to play me

Told me "Take a hike and never make it"
So I came back in new Mercedes, yeah
Yeah, yeah, gon' probably stun all my haters
That's a God answer to all my prayers
That's for all y'all doubt my Maker, God!
I've been feelin' like it's my year
Upper rain at the top tier
You countin' me, I know you count tears
And some of yo' favorites is not here
Sometimes you gotta bring back the memories
Just in case they think they might get rid of me
And they ain't wanna see me livin' like a king
So I might fix on you for all infinity, I
Phew! Turned all my haters to fans
I'm turnin' music to bands
Bet when I'm done, my kids won't have money and lands
I got the play from y'all, He told me it's in His hands
I'm shootin' shots 'til this trophy ain't handed
And you gotta set in the stands
While I play forever
