

#SameTeam

Swoope

What I'm finna quit for?
You see me living like a king
It's still 116 bruh
Oh Lord! Working for the same team
I think I need a adlib from Diddy!
'Cause I'ma take that each and every city
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
I think I need a ad-lib from Diddy!
'Cause I'ma take that to each and every city, homie I'ma...

Lecrae sell a million records
And my name don't get mentioned in the review
It don't matter, get the W
'Cause even players on the bench get rings too
Way deep is what the crew is
On the same team, all runnin' the same play
So you need to check your motives if you're doin' this
If you was mad Andy sold 28k
Takin' away from the mission
All this division don't add up
It all equals dissension
You ask me that's bad math, bruh
So yeah, I'm on Collision, but really I am indifferent
If you 116 and independent
No, you king livin', junkie dream itchin'
Humble coffee bean sippin'
Long as the mission and the team don't seem different

Take that, take that Core so tight, can't break that, break that Might find me and the squad, cliqued up in yo' city Preachin' truth, yeah, we show em' where the faith at Man, what the deal is? We show where the real is Am I brother's keeper?
We pass around that good-good, but I ain't talkin' reefer
And we on, and we ain't never goin' off
We gon' do it like this till we gone
Tell em' young boy, looka here
Folk, you gotta man up
Trap hard when you pressin' in the zone
And I ain't talkin' kitchen
And we pitchin' and we givin' you the mission
That He gave us when He put us on
This real life boy, more than a song
Live here like kings till he call us home
Hol' up

What I'm finna quit for?
You see me living like a king
It's still 116 bruh
Oh Lord, workin' for the same team
I think I need a adlib from Diddy!
'Cause Imma take that to each and every city

Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
I think I need a ad-lib from Diddy!
'Cause Imma take that to each and every city, homie I'ma

Unashamed of the name
Run it back I stay the same
Recognize united game man
'Cause I can remind tell em I ain't quittin' bro
Man ain't what I'm livin' for
Where they go, that's where I go, that's how it go like every time
Take it to the places where they say this isn't for you
But then maybe they complacent
Stay inside the fortress where it's safest
'Cause outside these walls they say it's really dangerous
Homie I believe 'em
That's why I'm out here ridin' for the people
Tell 'em where I be at when they need me
You ain't gotta be me
Or do something different tryna beat me
You sayin', it's insane to run my lane like Usain
So you sling around my name through the mud
But you playin' all these games
The truth man everybody in their body is invited
'Cause they follow where you walkin'
Or talkin' how you talkin'
I ain't runnin' from this thing cause this thing ain't for the runnin'
Man I call it like I see it, referee it
All things to all men, I'm tryna be it
If I'm 1-1-6 then that mean I'm on mission
And He orders every lil' step, Bobby Brown, New Edition
But who woulda thought where I went woulda cause division
How coulda Humble Beast tryna reach
Where they be bring the beats
Honestly could receive all this grief and cause a collision, my God
No, for real, my God
Give me clear sight just to live how you are God knows I want that for sure
Everything whole life hope he give it to me
Please know where you be isn't where he has me, has me
But it's still same team, same team!

What I'm finna quit for?
You see me livin' like a king
It's still 116, bruh
Oh Lord, workin' for the same team
I think I need a adlib from Diddy!
'Cause I'ma take that each and every city
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
I think I need a ad-lib from Diddy!
'Cause I'ma take that to each and every city, homie I'ma...

Humble as a mumble in the jungles of shouts and screams
Diggin' tunnels under a stampede, beast!
Okay-kay keep prayin' for the grace
We stay cold but never freeze

Like water at four-four blap-blap degrees fahrenheit
Where was I, dare if I share a terabyte, we don't care if you verified
Your lil' branch is just a fraction in the middle of a grain of sand
Or the hand of a master crafter of sand castles with the passion
Imagine, decapitatin' dragons
We are just a vapor on paper on another vapor of a microcosm
Of a remnant of minions runnin' like Kenyans like Obama
In repentance to the Father
Better warn the town the beast is loose
And you on the same team if the dreams from the same king
If it floats from the same stream
If it don't then it's gangrene (chop)

Give a junkie a inch, he take it a mile
Give a junkie a dream, he takin' 'em out
With the power of a catalyst cattlin' sheep through the wild
I hear 'em wolfin' but the Lion King is keepin' 'em down, heh
Judah to your Judas, I'm repeatin' it now, heh
I love to think the victory is keepin' the smile
In the face of devious, mischievous dundee crocodiles
We done playin' with you dummies, domination is now!
It's 'bout a hundred hooligans
All saved, all serious (hootie-hoo!)
Hootie-who want it with the crusade militia men?
Valid with the villages, get down or lay down
See nor hear nor speak no evil, that's how we play now
"Our Father come down from heaven", that's how we pray now
Son of God, Son of man
Rah-rah, Yahweh now
Anyway you wanna do it, we could do it
Who the truest of the tribe?
Swoope, you ain't ever lie, we on the same team

What I'm finna quit for?
You see me living like a king
It's still 116 bruh
Oh Lord! Working for the same team
I think I need a adlib from Diddy!
'Cause I'ma take that each and every city
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
Homie, I'ma take that, take that
I think I need a ad-lib from Diddy!
'Cause I'ma take that to each and every city, homie I'ma...
