

Yeah, it was all good just a week ago
I stayed down for months to get us where we be, oh
Anytime you need me, you ain't even gotta call
So while I'm listenin' to your voicemail on my speaker phone
Me [?], you [?] you habla any ingles, no
Me not the new partner, we got a history to stoke
You kinda remind me of Slim, or maybe even [?]
Governin' and [?]
Not gonna hangin' like we in the wars
Slickin' and bangin' like we in the 'hood
It's my cause, so I call, and you choose the side
How it's all my fault that you used to violence
I'm not used to fightin', you used to hidin'
It all behind [?], you used to smilin'
You used to cryin', tear rivers in private What's sicker is this river is you live where the Nile is What's crazy is [?] turns into this giant
Now David is tryin' to hang with Goliath
We gave up the mileage, had a good run
Had a good run, yeah, yeah, had some good times
Had some good times, yeah, yeah, but you never know
When it's the road like the end of an episode
Yeah, so I settle to just let it go
I guess your shoulder is as cold as what Elsa froze
Guess when you're older, you just know when to let it know
So I hope you hear my heart like a stethoscope
