

The Threat

Sword

Look in the dark through the eyes of the night
Tell me what do you see?
Are you afraid for your life well I am
And it's blackening me

I see a face in the night
A voice is shouting my name
Shadows of the past are recalling me
Set me free

Ride with the sword in your hand and some day
With the sword you will die
Live the blade of the damned but never return
No never

I see a face in the night
And now you're shouting my name
Shadows of past are returning

I feel a threat for my life
It's like the scream in the night
I am a threat for your life
I'm a scream in the night

So listen to me when I ask you today
Will the past make us strong
Are we just learning to die
Are we learning to crawl as we fall

I am the face in the night
And now I'm shouting your name
Shadows of past are recalling

Pointing at you
And now you're down on your knees
You're praying god to believe
That life and death are eternal
You crawl...
