

Ignorance

Sworn Enemy

call him psychotic with a killer stare he has no regard for consequence death sentence for the ones who oppose striking fear within their hearts conform to a way which you can't exist his violent solutions leave you laid to rest innocent are his victims put to death i call this ignorance
some things you can't explain
tortured life beyond all pain showers of death will cleanse your life psychotic mind bent on destruction force fed brain dead tortured slaughtered
life drained right before your eyes admired by many yet hated by all worl domination humanity falls is there hope for the human race? would they prefer to rest in pieces? history always repeats itself lessons learned are lessons gained strive to be a voice
