

I Guess

Sy Ari Da Kid

Got me out here like
You think you know it all
No I just know what I know
Natra Average on the beat though
Yeah

Take my loss but don't lose, I guess
I make moves, you don't move, I guess
Walk by faith, not by sight (I guess)
I don't even need to take a eye test

Yes, the lobby ain't always the first floor
By the time you realize my worth, I'm worth more
How you tell me what I need to work on?
Need to worry 'bout the man you work for
I think you call him boss
I might warn you, I influenced the niggas that write for you
So by the time you get to me and ask me my fee
Don't be surprised when I raise the price on you
I'm crazy like, I mean like, who likes normal?
Sydney Robbins, get acquainted with my lawyer
Why I ought to buy me a river for my water
And I love my niece so much, she's my daughter
And I lift what y'all bench, it's my warmup
You only bench 225 like nine quarters
And I'm too sick like the jersey number on Kyle Korver
Nevermind, I'm up early as Tom Joyner

Take my loss but don't lose, I guess
You make moves but don't move, I guess
Walk by faith, not by sight (I guess)
When's the last time I took a eye test?

Conquer on land, start at the ocean
Heart of a vulture, that's just part of my culture
Keep it quiet with paper then put it all in a folder
You be playin' them games, give me a call when it's over
Hello, is you ready nigga? I'm talkin' promotion
I'm a boss, I'm devoted, I mix my thoughts with emotion
You got to handle yo' business like Bernie, told homie
Don't break yo' hand for them bitches, that might damage yo' niggas
What the fuck is you doin'? Wait, I rather relax and I'm thinkin' matter of fact
I'ma take 'em back to facts and a matter of seconds brratt
After the blessin', add up, subtract, you notice that we was equal
The problem was the solution, the problem was you was losin'
You movin' how I maneuver, you boostin' what I'm exclusive
Fuck with embalming fluid, I'ma do it
Yeah, my teacher never told me I was stupid
I'm old school to the point I think I might buy a Buick

Take my loss but don't lose, I guess
I make moves, you don't move, I guess
Walk by faith, not by sight (I guess)
When's the last time I took a eye test?

Guess

Yes
