

The Definition Of Definition Part 2

Sy Ari Da Kid

You know everything I'm not Made me everything I am
I've learned not to think I'm perfect
But aim to be
And since everybody think they real
I'mma just be righteous, and be me

Yeah, still define definition
I still rewind, reminiscing to a time when my mind had a vision
Its divine intervention, on a mission with grind and ambition
I can no longer hide what I'm living
In the eyes of pigeon, looking down from the skyes, to a prison
Takes a man to realize what it isn't
And I tried, but I'm different
I rise, but I'm drifting
With God, and the devil, and disguised in religion
No lies, must I mention? So fond of blond women
More crime and time given
No grind, no shine, listen
I swear I be changing the season
Still I manage to go to war with my angels and deamons
Ashamed of the heathen I've become, chasing and dreaming
Infatuated with seeing hoes with a face full of semen Straight up deceiving, everything I was raised to believe in I'm grateful and patient, but still say my grace when I'm eating
Away for a reason
I noticed you hate that I'm breathing
You try take till I break, but you showed up late for this evening
Great cause I'm leaving
Bitch I'm fed up
Tryna keep my head up
They brag about that bakery but still don't put no bread up
Man shut up
Y'all to old for making those decisions
Still got my soul but I don't know, cause I been so submissive
Trapped in this globe and this shit colder than my older sister
Stay on my toes, cause all my foes is at a closer distance
I smell the grim reaper, and soon we all goin make that cut, like some open scissors
Peep how the losers switch it up when they approach the winners
They took my brother Dunk, I swear this shit ain't over nigga
Peace to Yung Teddy, man I can't believe I'm sober
I define definition
I still rewind, reminiscing to a time when my mind had a vision
Its divine intervention, on a mission with grind and ambition
I can no longer hide what I'm living
I define definition
I still rewind, reminiscing to a time when my mind had a vision
Its divine intervention, on a mission with grind and ambition
I can no longer hide what I'm living, no
