"What the fuck, you just make it seem like I was just a bad vibe
Like, ion like that, I watch you, look at your phone, and you
Ignored me. You ain't even see me that's the crazy part
In traffic, caught you at the red light"

Got a hood girl never fill her gas tank she only put 10 on it
(Yeah, Yeah)

And she so ghetto that she tell me
Happy Valentime's day wit the M on it
I open the car door, she gone open mine from the inside
She hold it down she don't switch sides
The way you facetime wit your bonnet I miss that Go to the store with your scarf on you did that Mommie

We ain't even Spanish but you call me poppy
Them lame niggas wanna know how many bodies you got
When you answer they gone multiply it by 3
But it don't matter who you fuckin until you find me
Just as long, you don't do that shit behind me
And she got a thing for a thug with some passion
(No, Cappin')
And she take her food stamps to Kroger cuz Publix be taxin
(Yeah)
And you know you save when you with me
Cuz nothing gone happen
(Can you Imagine, this shit crazy bae)
