Sy Ari Da Kid

(You ain't cooler than AC)
(Malcolm Lil John)

You know who I am, you know what I'm 'bout
You go through my phone, I might curse you out
That's our vibe, yeah, yeah
What you tryna find?
I act like you wrong, even when you right (Yeah)
Even though you left, I was by your side
'Member when your father died (Yeah)
I hugged you every single time
Even when your mama got a new nigga, don't lie
Yeah, don't lie
And I slept with your friend, only 'cause you slept with mine

We even, yeah
All is fair in love and war
We even, yeah
It's my fault, it wasn't yours
We even, yeah
All is fair in love and war (So, solo)
We even, yeah (Yeah)
It's my fault, it wasn't yours

Saw you at a club, I go off then you see me
You was with a nigga but y'all talkin'
I was with some bitches when I walked in, oh
I'm biased and seeing you got me excited
Pointed to the bathroom, hoping you might meet me by it
I disagree, what we decided, girl, we was fightin'
I couldn't think straight, yeah
What you know 'bout being wide awake while being tired?
You're on my mind, babe (That's facts)

We even, yeah
All is fair in love and war
We even, yeah
It's my fault, it wasn't yours
We even, yeah
All is fair in love and war (So, solo)
We even, yeah (Yeah)
It's my fault, it wasn't yours

Right now, "How's It Goin' Down" by DMX
Been stressed, thinking I should DM my ex
She the best, tryna hold on to whatever I think we got left (Whatever)
It get tricky like we ridin' bikes for BMX (That's facts)
At least we even, for now

All is fair in love and war
We even, yeah
It's my fault, it wasn't yours
We even, yeah
All is fair in love and war (So, solo)
We even, yeah (Yeah)
It's my fault, it wasn't yours
