Bring me some patience (some patience)
You know you ain't felt like this before
Have no more pride now baby (pride now baby)
Emotions are easy to explore
I'll let you in
If you let me in
And we won't pretend
Like we don't know love
That's all we defend
Cause we both have scars

I'll tell all of my fears to be quiet
If you speak your heart don't be silent
You're my getaway
I'm your hideaway
Now we're home

You'll never have to be alone
Leave the past where it belongs
Take your rest
Settle down
We are blessed
Look at what we've found
This is home
We are home
You and I are home now

Give me your crown now baby
Leave your throne
Just let it go
Let this vibe
Be our home
You and me
Cause it's critical
Wandering keeps us unsure
I'll let you in
If you let me in
And we won't pretend
Like we don't know love
That's all we defend
We both have scars

I'll tell all of my fears to be quiet
If you could speak your heart don't be silent
You're my getaway
I'm your hideaway
Now we're home

You'll never have to be alone
Leave the past where it belongs
Take your rest
Settle down
We are blessed
Look at what we've found
This is home
We are home
You and I are home now

Bridge:

No more inhibitions

Look what we've found

Home is where the heart is

You have mine now

Nothing more to lose

Only more to gain

If we give this everything

You'll never have to be alone

Leave the past where it belongs

Take a rest

Settle down

We are blessed

Look at what we've found

This is home

We are home

You and I are home now
