

I Deserve More

Syleena Johnson

I don't deserve a man that puts me on the list
Trying to give me all your bags
Boy come and get your shit

I don't deserve a man who runs up hella bills
And every time the 15th hits you don't want to pay for it

Love or leave me
All or nothing
Baby tell me what's the deal
Cause I don't really need you here

More
More than the universe
More
More even when it hurts
More
More Cause I know my worth
I deserve more than this

More
More Than than the way you lie
More
More than the way I cry
More
More than the way you quit
I deserve more than this

I don't deserve a man who sleeping in my bed
Laying up for 2, 3 days
Then turn around and disappear
I don't deserve a man who sells me hella dreams
Promise me the whole damn world but never give me anything

Love or leave me
All or nothing
Baby tell me what's the deal
Cause I don't really need you here

More
More than the universe
More
More even when it hurts
More
More Cause I know my worth

More
More Than than the way you lie
More
More than the way I cry
More
More than the way you quit

If you ain't gonna try and change
Then you can get up out my face

Cause I'm not out here tryna raise No body kids
I ain't your momma baby

I deserve the finer things like
Love and joy
It's the simple things that make the big things matter
But you gonna have to do better
Cause I deserve

More
More
More
More Cause I know my worth

More
More
More
More than the way you quit

I deserve to be treated like a queen
I don't deserve no for a man to put his hands on me
I deserve to make the choice with my body
I deserve to be treated like the woman of this earth
