Shero

Syleena Johnson

It's been hard

I know these years Have been hard for you
Cause It's been hard for me to see you go through
Even though I've never walked in your shoes
I'm still here for you (yeah)
And no matter what this life will bring (yeah)
You should know that you are still my king, baby
Ups and downs will never change a thing
You're still my everything

Cause whenever you feel weak, feel like you want to fall
I will catch you baby
Forever you and me, whenever you call
I'll come running baby
Crown, cape and all
I will be your Shero
I won't let you fall

In Case you didn't know I pray for you
I Pray that all your hopes and dreams come true
Just want you to know I'm proud of you
I believe in you (yeah)

And make no mistake I understand
How it feels when you've done all that you've can
Through my highs and lows you've held my hand
You've been my best friend (yeah)
And I'm here till the end

Cause whenever you feel weak, feel like you want to fall
I will catch you baby
Forever you and me, whenever you call
I'll come running baby
Crown, cape and all (yeah)
I will be your Shero
I won't let you fall

No I want, I want let you fall, I will be there
I want let you fall (Ohh no, no, no, no)
I will be Shero
I won't let you fall

Cause whenever you feel weak, feel like you want to fall
I will catch you baby
Forever you and me, whenever you call
I'll come running baby
Crown, cape and all (yeah)
I will be your Shero
I won't let you fall
