

[silence]

Syleena Johnson

There's so much noise in this silence
It must be broken, must be cracked open
All the pain and pleasure, merged together
And I can't tell the difference of how

The sounds of a broken heart is all I can hear
Loud and clear
What once was near seems so far
Where do we go from here

I feel so lost in this silence of love
Tell me how can we break the silence
Because it's killing me
I feel so lost in this silence of love
Tell me how can we break the silence
You gotta talk to me
'Cause we're lost in this silence of love

There's so much noise in this silence
There's so much damage, there's so much baggage
Your body language sends a message
It says we're finished, but I still wanna replenish this love

The sounds of a broken heart is all I can hear (I can hear)
Loud and clear (loud and clear, yeah yeah, oh)
What once was near seems so far (so far)
Where do we go from here (yeah)

I feel so lost in this silence of love
Tell me how can we break the silence
Because it's killing me
I feel so lost in this silence of love
Tell me how can we break the silence (yeah)
You gotta talk to me
'Cause we're lost in this silence of love

(Tell me) tell me how can we break this silence (ooh ooh ooh)
'Cause it's killing me
I feel so lost in this silence of love
Tell me how can we break this silence (break the silence, oh yeah yeah)

You gotta talk to me 'cause we're lost in the silence of love
Before I let you go
I want all of you or nothin' at all, yeah
I'm tryin' to let you know
I want all of you or nothin' at all, baby
I'm tryin' to let you know
I want all of you or nothin' at all
Oh, I wanna let you know
I want all of you or nothin' at all
Ah, ah ooh woah
Ah ah

Let's break the silence
