

Pariahs

Sylosis

Nurtured by no one
Shunned and cast away
Left out like rats in the rain
Damaged cells assimilate
Lost souls will aggregate

Broken
We'll never be your saviours
Pariahs
We took the fall for your failures
The bastard sons and daughters
The lambs that strayed from slaughter

So now you want in?
But now you need answers?
Cauterised the wounds and now nothing stands between us?
No bonds broken
No love lost
There was nothing to lose
You never had our trust

Broken
We'll never be your saviours
Pariahs
We took the fall for your failures
The bastard sons and daughters
The lambs that strayed from slaughter

Pariahs
So sharpen the axe
Pariahs
We pulled arrows from our backs
Pariahs
Learned to breathe through suffocating hands
Pariahs
Baptised in flames no one could stand

Pariahs
So sharpen the axe
Pariahs
We pulled arrows from our backs
Pariahs
Learned to breathe through suffocating hands
Pariahs
Baptised in flames no one could stand

I know how it feels
We slipped through the cracks
Covered in ash
We bathed in the ashes
I've seen that look
In your eyes
Behind mine

Broken
We'll never be your saviours
Pariahs

We took the fall for your failures
Pariahs
The bastard sons and daughters
Pariahs
And you can't fucking take this from us
